

View, Inc. Set to Join Russell 3000® Index

June 7, 2021

MILPITAS, Calif., June 07, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- View, Inc. (NASDAQ: VIEW), the market leader in smart windows, is set to join the broadmarket Russell 3000 Index at the conclusion of the 2021 Russell indexes annual reconstitution, effective after the US market opens on June 28 according to a preliminary list of additions posted June 4.

Membership in the US all-cap Russell 3000[®] Index, which remains in place for one year, means automatic inclusion in the large-cap Russell 1000 Index or small-cap Russell 2000 Index as well as the appropriate growth and value style indexes. FTSE Russell determines membership for its Russell indexes primarily by objective, market-capitalization rankings, and style attributes.

View is the market leader in smart windows that use artificial intelligence to automatically adjust in response to the sun to increase access to natural light and views of the outdoors, minimize heat and glare, and reduce energy consumption and greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions. Every View installation includes a cloud-connected smart building platform to enable groundbreaking applications that improve building security, provide superior cellular coverage in buildings, enable edge computing, and facilitate collaboration via View windows that transform into transparent displays. View is designed into 75 million square feet of buildings including offices, hospitals, airports, educational facilities, hotels, and multi-family residences.

Russell indexes are widely used by investment managers and institutional investors for index funds and as benchmarks for active investment strategies. Approximately $10.6 trillion in assets are benchmarked against Russell's US indexes. Russell indexes are part of FTSE Russell, a leading global index provider.
