PART II — RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reason described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;
- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-CEN or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q or subject distribution report on Form 10-D, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III — NARRATIVE

View, Inc. (the "Company") is unable, without unreasonable effort or expense, to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2022 (the "10-Q"), within the prescribed time period for the reasons described below. On November 9, 2021, the Company filed a Current Report on Form 8-K disclosing, among other things, that the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors had substantially completed an independent investigation focusing on the adequacy of the Company's previously reported warranty accrual. While the Audit Committee investigation is now complete, the Company has not been able to finalize its financial statements or corresponding assessment of the effectiveness of its disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting. The Company is also unable to make a reasonable estimate of changes in results of operations in its financial statements at this time; however, management anticipates that they will be disclosing substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, as the Company does not currently have adequate financial resources to fund its forecasted operating costs and meet its obligations for at least twelve months from the expected issuance date of the 2021 Annual Report on Form 10-K. While management will look to raise capital, there can be no assurance that the necessary financing will be available or will be available on terms acceptable to the Company. Given the findings of its Audit Committee, the Company also expects to report additional material weaknesses, and is working to determine any additional adjustments to the Company's financial statements that may be required. Although the Company expects that it will finalize its financial statements and file the related 10-Q as soon as practicable, it does not currently expect to file the 10-Q by the extended filing date pursuant to Rule 12b-25.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 12b-25 includes “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended. These forward-looking statements may include words or phrases like “will,” “may,” “as soon as possible,” “as soon as practicable,” “expects,” “anticipates,” “predicts,” “timely,” or similar words that may be forward looking, or other passages that are relevant to expected future events, performances, and actions or that can only be fully evaluated by events that will occur in the future. These forward-looking statements are based on current expectations, estimates, assumptions, projections, and management’s beliefs, that are subject to change. There can be no assurance that these forward-looking statements will be achieved; these statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and other factors, many of which are beyond the Company’s control and are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual outcomes and results may differ materially from what is expressed or forecasted in such forward-looking statements. The Company’s business is subject to a number of risks which are described more fully in the Company’s definitive proxy statement filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on February 16, 2021, as amended or supplemented, which is incorporated by reference into its Current Report on Form 8-K filed on March 12, 2021. The Company undertakes no obligation to update forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof.
